The U.S. Conference of Mayors (USCM), the nonpartisan association of 1,408 American cities with populations over 30,000, has unanimously adopted Mayors for Peace resolutions for 16 consecutive years. Resolutions adopted at annual meetings become official USCM policy.

The Mayors for Peace resolution adopted by the 2021 USCM annual meeting, Calling on the United States to Welcome the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons and to Act Now to Prevent Nuclear War and Eliminate Nuclear Weapons, calls on the United States government “to welcome the Treaty as a positive step towards negotiation of a comprehensive agreement on the achievement and permanent maintenance of a world free of nuclear weapons.” It also “calls on the President and Congress to cancel the plan to replace the entire U.S. nuclear arsenal with enhanced weapons and to redirect funds currently allocated to nuclear weapons and unwarranted military spending to address decades of inaction on infrastructure, poverty, the growing climate crisis, and rising inequality,” and urges all U.S. mayors to join Mayors for Peace to help reach its goal of 10,000 member cities

The Mayors for Peace resolution adopted by the 2020 USCM annual meeting, Calling for Human-Centered Security in a Time of Global Pandemic, affirmed the USCM’s support for the Back From the Brink Campaign for the third year, and urges all U.S. mayors to join Mayors for Peace to help reach the goal of 10,000 member cities.

As Mayor Frank Cownie of Des Moines, Iowa, the U.S. Vice-President of Mayors for Peace, has said, “If you don’t think nuclear weapons are a local issue, ask the Mayors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki”. Mayors are well placed to understand the dangers of nuclear war as well as the impacts of grotesquely bloated military spending on human needs and on the public services we all depend on. Especially during the ongoing pandemic, these powerful resolutions calling for new priorities provide an important opportunity to get that message heard.

- If you’re planning to ask your City Council to adopt a Back From the Brink resolution or the ICAN Cities Appeal or some combination, ask your mayor to join Mayors for Peace at the same time.
- Even better, include an operative clause in your resolution making it City policy for the mayor to join Mayors for Peace. Many City resolutions have incorporated language from the recent USCM resolutions.
- If your mayor is already a member of Mayors for Peace, ask them to actively support adoption of your resolution by the City Council.

Here are some other ways you can use the USCM resolutions:

- Take copies of recent USCM resolutions to meetings with members of Congress or their staff; include it in correspondence with members of Congress and State legislators.
- Refer to and quote from the USCM resolutions in articles, op-eds, and letters to the editor.
- Ask your mayor to co-sponsor the new Mayors for Peace resolution that will be submitted for consideration at the June 2022 USCM annual meeting.

Some THINGS MAYORS CAN DO with the support of local peace and disarmament groups:

Public education

- Plant a seedling from an A-bombed tree at a public location
- Host an A-Bomb poster exhibit in City Hall or another public location
- Issue a Proclamation on the Hiroshima-Nagasaki anniversary
- Place relevant books in public libraries
- Host a Town Hall meeting
- Host a film showing or film series
- Publish an op-ed in a local newspaper
- Sign and promote the Mayors for Peace petition, Calling for all states to join the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons as soon as possible.

Work with your City Council

- Pass a resolution in support of the Back From the Brink campaign, the ICAN Cities Appeal or a hybrid
- Hold a city budget hearing on local impacts of nuclear weapons and military spending
- Divest city funds from nuclear weapons makers

Lobby the federal government

- Join with other Mayors for Peace members to lobby Congress using the USCM and municipal resolutions
- Recruit your Congressional Representatives and Senators to join Parliamentarians for Nuclear Nonproliferation and Disarmament and sign the ICAN Parliamentary Pledge.

More:

- Contact U.S. Mayors for Peace Vice-President Mayor Frank Cownie of Des Moines, Iowa and let him know you're interested in getting involved
- Put a Mayors for Peace logo on the City's or the Mayor's website
